Waldorf University - Officially Non-Profit!!

WALDORF IS APPROVED FOR NONPROFIT STATUS!

Waldorf University is proud to announce that the U.S. Department of Education has approved Waldorf's request to convert to nonprofit status. This is the final step of the process since the Higher Learning Commission, the IRS, and the State of Iowa had previously approved the Change in Ownership.

The nonprofit status granted by the U.S. Department of Education marks a pivotal moment in Waldorf's ongoing efforts to further its educational and social impact. The new status enables the university to expand its research capacity, enhance partnerships with community organizations, and improve student services while maintaining its commitment to reinvesting resources into its educational programs and mission.

"We are thrilled to receive this approval, as it allows us to broaden our impact in ways that will directly benefit our students, faculty, and the communities we serve," said Robert Alsop, President of Waldorf University. "This nonprofit status empowers us to focus even more on our core mission of providing an inclusive and affordable educational experience that drives success and opportunity for all."

This milestone is part of a broader strategy by Waldorf University to continually enhance its educational offerings, expand its reach, and build stronger relationships with industry, government, and nonprofit sectors. Waldorf is committed to fostering an environment where academic excellence, personal growth, and community development go hand in hand.

Celebrate Waldorf through Philanthropy

We have experienced a record outpouring of support for Waldorf since 2022. So many alumni, family members, and friends celebrate their love for Waldorf by including the University in their philanthropy. With such an incredibly strong financial position, no debt as of summer 2026, and bucking enrollment trends for the past several years, Waldorf has a bright future. Please make a gift to the Waldorf Fund or a priority area of Scholarships, Alumni Relations, and Campus Ministry are great options. You can make gifts to existing scholarships by typthe name in the comments box.

The future of Waldorf is bright, and we are grateful for your love for Waldorf! How can we help you achieve your dream for Waldorf?
