2025 Alumni Awards

Waldorf University celebrated two exceptional alums during Homecoming weekend at a ceremony held on Saturday, October 11, 2025. In a packed room of classmates, faculty, family, and friends, the University honored women whose careers and character have carried Waldorf's mission far beyond campus.

Ingrid Levik Gangestad 1985 was presented the Lifetime Achievement Award for her decades of influence in the profession of modern cookery, including her work in the Betty

Crocker test kitchens and her leadership in product development and nutrition consulting for major national brands. Her career has touched millions of kitchens while reflecting the humility, integrity, and excellence that define Waldorf alumni.

Professor Dawn Johnson 1980 received the Alumni Distinguished Service Award in recognition of her 41 years of residential service to Waldorf and her ongoing commitment as an online business faculty member. Widely regarded as a student-first educator, Dawn has served in key academic and administrative roles whenever called upon and has remained a lifelong mentor to generations of graduates.

Waldorf University extends heartfelt congratulations to Dawn Johnson and Ingrid Gangestad for their remarkable legacies of service, leadership, and faith-filled impact. Their lives continue to reflect the very best of what it means to be a Waldorf graduate.

Celebrate Waldorf through Philanthropy

We have experienced a record outpouring of support for Waldorf since 2022. So many alumni, family members, and friends celebrate their love for Waldorf by including the University in their philanthropy. With such an incredibly strong financial position, no debt as of summer 2026, and bucking enrollment trends for the past several years, Waldorf has a bright future. Please make a gift to the Waldorf Fund or a priority area of Scholarships, Alumni Relations, or Campus Ministry. You can make gifts to existing scholarships by typing the name in the comments box.

The future of Waldorf is bright, and we are grateful for your love for Waldorf! How can we help you achieve your dream for Waldorf?
